

Larry Dutt began piano lessons at age five. He earned degrees in Orchestral Conducting from Bowling Green State University and the College-Conservatory of Music in Cincinnati. He has performed throughout the world both as concert pianist, as a music director for Holland America Line. He has played multiple world premieres, has performed live on radio and television, and has four recordings on the Electric Records label.